STATEMENT FOR EMPLOYEES UNDER AGE OF 18:

KBIA employs young men and young women starting at age 15 when they typically complete their first year of high school. As they are still developing emotionally, it is important to involve their parents when appropriate. KBIA expects parents of employees to support the values that KBIA has promoted for over 100 years. KBIA will contact parents of employees under the age of 18 when an issue arises that requires the Executive Director's involvement. Examples are failure to show up for work, significantly underperforming, safety issues, etc. We at KBIA hope that by communicating with the family of employees under the age of 18 that positive growth can result and that the family supports any necessary actions. KBIA will only contact parents of its employees over the age of 18 with the consent of the employee.

I certify that the information on this application is accurate.
